ALBERTA INNOVATES WEBSITE – PRIVACY

This privacy statement applies to the Website (as defined in the Terms and Conditions of Use).

Alberta Innovates respects the privacy of visitors to the Website. We maintain the Website to help the public find information about the programs and funding available from Alberta Innovates. We are committed to ensuring your privacy while you visit the Website. The following statement is to advise you how your personal information will be treated by us as you use the Website.

What personal information is collected when visiting the Website

When you visit the Alberta Innovates Websites, our web servers automatically collect a limited amount of standard information essential to the operation and evaluation of the Website. This information includes the:

- Page from which you arrived.
- Date and time of your page request.
- IP address your computer is using to receive information
- Type and version of your browser.
- Name and size of the file you request.

The only information collected that is used to identify you is information you give voluntarily. If you submit a question or comment, you may be asked for your name, e-mail address, or other information to assist us in contacting you and responding to your request. You may ask to make changes to your personal information by contacting us at the emails noted below.

The collection of this information is authorized under Section 33(c) of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIP) Act. This section provides that no personal information may be collected by or for a public body unless it relates directly to and is necessary for an operating program or activity of a public body. Once collected, the information will be treated in accordance with the provisions of Part 2 of the FOIP Act which govern its protection.

If you have any questions about the collection and use of your information, please contact the FOIP Coordinator for Alberta Innovates at (780)450-5180 or foip@albertainnovates.ca.

COOKIES

A cookie is a file that is placed on your hard drive with your temporary internet files while you are visiting a website. The Website uses cookies to track how visitors use our site. We do not store personal information in cookies, nor do we collect personal information from you without your knowledge as you browse this site. Cookies are used to aid in the collection of anonymous statistical information such as browser type, screen size, traffic patterns and pages visited. This information is then used to improve the service offered by the Website. If you wish, you may change the settings on your web browser to deny cookies or to warn you when cookies will be deposited.

The Website uses software to monitor unauthorized attempts to upload or change information, or damage the services provided. No attempt is made to identify users or their usage patterns except during law enforcement investigations.

LINKS TO OTHER WEBSITES

The Website may contain links to other related web sites. We are not responsible for the privacy practices of any sites you may visit after you enter our Website.

SECURITY

We make every reasonable effort to ensure that personal information is accurate and complete. We rely on you to notify us if there is a change to your personal information that may affect our relationship. If you are aware of an error in our information about you, please let us know and we will correct it on request wherever possible. In some cases, we may ask for a written request for correction.

We protect personal information in a manner appropriate for the sensitivity of the information. We make every reasonable effort to prevent any loss, misuse, disclosure or modification of personal information, as well as any unauthorized access to personal information.

We use appropriate security measures when destroying personal information, including shredding paper records and permanently deleting electronic records. Please note that the personal information you submit is secure once it reaches the government server. In transit between your computer and the server, however, it may not be secure.

CHANGES TO PRIVACY STATEMENT

From time to time, we review and revise our privacy statement to better reflect the changing nature of the web and ensure your personal information remains fully protected.
